GEORGE BURNS & FRIENDS

They were the favorite entertainers of their time and were friends of George Burns dating back to vaudeville days. They were all comedians whose talents went beyond the joke. Bob Hope acted his way into the movies and could do a great dance. Red Skelton was a man of many humorous characters. Jack Benny was an accomplished musician and Jimmy Durante was the top ragtime piano player of his time. And then there was George Burns whose career spanned the prototype straight man to dramatic actor.

Lynn Roberts and Peter Salzer pay tribute to the friends of George Burns in a two act show filled with the humor and music of these icons of entertainment. Together they have appeared before sold out audiences to standing ovations. Lynn brings to life Bob Hope, Red Skelton, Jack Benny, and Jimmy Durante. When Peter appears on stage audiences believe George Burns is still alive.

“George Burns and Friends” bring back fond memories from the past when radio, television and movies starred these famous entertainers.
